

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HERMAN HEWITT, JR. NAMED KINGFISHER SYSTEMS, INC.
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

FALLS CHURCH VA, July 22, 2019. Herman Hewitt, Jr., a 20-year government services market veteran, has joined Kingfisher Systems, Inc. as the Senior Vice President of Business Development. Mr. Hewitt’s experience includes supporting government mission Information Technology (IT), cyber, and intelligence solutions. He brings years of experience executing strategic growth, in the Federal and Defense markets, as well as other Federal civilian agencies, and Mr. Hewitt will lead Kingfisher Systems, Inc.’s growth strategy. Mr. Hewitt previously served as the Senior Vice President, Business Development at MetroStar Systems.

His leadership and management experience span a variety of disciplines including partner relationship management, growth, business development, finance, delivery operations, and IT. He has held positions responsible for Profit and Loss (P&L) and customer facing operations and applied extensive expertise along ascending levels of business units including executive, department, division, section, and project management for a broad range of Government and commercial customers.

Roy L. Reed, Chief Executive Officer said, “We are pleased Herman has chosen to join the Kingfisher Team. His strategic outlook and expertise in business development will add immeasurably to achieving our strategic goals.”

As part of his responsibilities at Kingfisher Systems, Inc., Mr. Hewitt will establish growth strategies by ensuring business methods, capabilities, and technologies align with Federal customers and Kingfisher Systems, Inc.’s business pipeline.
