TOP-PERFORMING SMALL TECHNOLOGY COMPANY

FALLS CHURCH, VIRGINIA, September 1,

2023. The Washington Business Journal

recognized Kingfisher Systems, Inc.

(Kingfisher) on their 2023 list of Top-

Performing Small Technology Companies in Greater Washington. Kingfisher has demonstrated a commendable progression, securing the #18 position this year, a significant rise from #23 in 2021 and #21 in 2022, underscoring Kingfisher's growth and financial stability. The Washington Business Journal is a reputable weekly publication providing in-depth industry coverage and a source of leading regional business news, insights, and data. The Top-

Performing Small Technology Companies in Greater Washington award is revenue ranked. To qualify for this list, locally headquartered companies must maintain a workforce of fewer than 150 employees. In addition to the Top-Performing Small Technology Companies list, The Washington

Business Journal featured Kingfisher on their Largest Cybersecurity Companies list for 2020 and 2022.

Founded in 2005, Kingfisher is a Small Business with resolute and driven employees who provide Cybersecurity, Enterprise Information Technology, Satellite Communications, Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, and National Security services.
